Speaker & Stylist

She is clothed with strength and dignity; she can laugh at the days to come

Proverbs 31:25

Inspiring women to develop an outward style to reveal their inner beauty!

Hello Beautiful!

It's that time of the year when I always get asked "Can I still wear white after Labor Day?" Now, I know some of your grandmothers are going to roll over in their graves when I say this, but the answer is "YES"!

I decided to check out the website of the Queen of Etiquette, Emily Post, and see what she had to say about this and guess what?? It was pretty much word-for-word the answer I was giving!

Here it is from the website:

"Of course, you can wear white after Labor Day, and it makes perfect sense to do so in climates where September's temperatures are hardly fall-like. It's more about fabric choice today than color. Even in the dead of winter in northern New England the fashionable wear white wools, cashmeres, jeans, and down-filled parkas. The true interpretation is "wear what's appropriate—for the weather, the season, or the occasion."

Here in Tennessee we are still experiencing some warm temperatures so I will still be seen in my white jeans! You can transition into fall/winter by pairing them with booties instead of sandals, leopard flats, lightweight fall scarves, denim jackets and other layering pieces.

Here are some examples and you can check out my Pinterest board for more!

Glimmers of Hope - Women's Conference... Join Me!

I'm honored to be one of the Speakers this year at the Glimmers of Hope Women's Conference in Knoxville!

I hope you will join me on October 1st for this time of encouragement, worship, and learning from women who have found hope after heartache.

I will be sharing "Get Up, Dress Up, Never Give Up!" Everyone has a story and I want to encourage you to never give up hope!

Saturday, October 1st 8:30-4:00
Callahan Baptist Church in Knoxville, TN.
