Hello Beautiful Friend!

Do you ever stress over whether or not you should buy something new for your wardrobe? These days - with prices on the rise - we really should think about how we are investing our money in our wardrobe! Since clothes are a necessity, here are some tips to make the best choices! Ask yourself...

- Is it in my Color Code -is the color one of the best shades for me?
- Does the style fit my body shape?
- Will it last more than one season?
- Is it well-made and good quality?
- Can it be cared for without dry-cleaning?

...but wait, there's more!

- Does it fit in my price range and budget?

- Do I have other things in my closet that it would go with?
- Does it fit well?
- Can I return it if I need to?
- Do I absolutely have to have it now?

I would suggest you take a good inventory of your closet and make a list of must needed items and create a plan and budget! If you have ever purchased the Closet Outfit Planner you know what a helpful tool this can be! Everyone loves it!
