Inspiring women to develop an outward style to reveal their inner beauty!

Hello Beautiful Friend!

I hope your new year has started off well! Let's work together to make 2023 our best year yet!

A recent post on my Faithfully Fashionable facebook page got a lot of attention and I sure appreciate all the sweet comments! On my recent trip to NYC, I couldn't help but notice a storefront window mannequin wearing an outfit very similar to one I wore in a photoshoot for my website!

I have always loved denim, but I love it even more with sparkles, pearls, diamonds and anything shiny! ☺ I love the versatility and mixing and matching it with unique pieces. Before my photo shoot I had a vision for an outfit I wanted to create. I saw the pink skirt at Cato's and knew it was for me! I paired it with a jacket I've had for years - a unique piece I picked up at a boutique! I found the sparkly shoes on clearance at Marshall's and voila! ...my vision became a reality (bonus: on a very low budget)!

So, my style tip is this- look for inspiration around you, then make it your own! We all have our own unique style personality and know the things we like; but just because we see something we like on a mannequin or in a magazine doesn't always mean it will look the same on us. So, take that inspiration and make it fit your own style and be sure it fits your Color Code and Body Shape! (If you don't know your Color Code or Body Shape, let's chat!)

You can get lots of inspiration from sites like Pinterest or your favorite online store site. It may be something you see an actress wearing on your favorite tv show or in a magazine. Remember, just because it is their style doesn't mean it is your style, but you can certainly adapt it to make it your own! I would love to see outfits you put together based on inspirations from outfits you have seen - send me an email!
