Inspiring women to develop an outward style to reveal their inner beauty!

Hello Beautiful Friend!

Thank you for all the sweet comments regarding my magazine cover and article in Christian Vogue Magazine! God has certainly blessed me with some amazing opportunities to share how He has worked in my life and to encourage so many ladies to never give up hope. We are all survivors of our own stories!

In the last few weeks I was able to be on the Christian Broadcasting network out of Atlanta to share my breast cancer journey, I taped two shows for the "Always More" program to be aired later, I co-embeced and taught a session at a retreat in Charlotte, NC for fellow Image Consultants, I traveled to Hanceville, AL to do a workshop for Wallace State Community College and teach the importance of personal style for professional success...

I spoke at a ladies brunch event at Leoma Baptist Church in Leoma, TN and just this week I spoke at the executive women's international group in Knoxville.

I LOVE what I GET to do!

During my breast cancer journey, God has put a message in my heart and I'm excited for the opportunities to share it! I have a story but so does everyone else. We have all gone through something (more than likely many

BIO

As a Christian Women's Speaker and Certified Image Consultant, Donna Roland is passionate about helping women embrace their God-given beauty. Donna has endured various trials in her life, and she uses them to encourage other women. However, ten years into her career of personal coaching and speaking to women's groups, a breast cancer diagnosis inspired her to create a new presentation: Get up. Dress up. Never give up.

She uses her diagnosis, struggles, and survivorship to inspire other women to find strength and joy in every situation. Using herself as an example, Donna encourages other women to overcome any setback with an even stronger comeback.

With her Southern charm and humor, Donna offers a fun and interactive presentation to help women find hope while loving the person in the mirror... because you are a reflection of God's perfection!

Get up.

This raw and inspirational presentation centers on drawing strength from God. Donna's passion is to empower women to conquer the battle, regardless of what it is. She speaks from experience, encourages grace, and uses herself as an example.

"When you are going through even your big loss, there is always hope. We don't always have a choice about what happens to us, but we have a choice on how to handle those things. My goal is to be an example of hope and never giving up." - Donna Roland

Dress Up.

As the presentation evolves into dressing up, Donna has fun livening the crowd with fashion. This interactive segment allows each woman to select her most complimentary colors and styles.

Never Give Up.

The presentation comes full circle with a focus on feeling your best, finding strength, and never giving up.

"I love Donna's presentations so much I've had her return time and time again! Not only does she help us discover our best colors and how to dress for our body types, she reminds us that we have inner beauty as daughters of the King. Donna is an inspirational, humorous, and engaging speaker willing to stay after the event to speak to attendees."
