Hello Beautiful Friend!

I'm excited to announce I'm a published author in a book!

Although I have been honored to have articles published in various magazines and I have been the fashion contributor for Christian Vogue Magazine for the past 3 years, this is the first time for a book.

Several years ago, I did Professional Organizing as a side job. I was honored to be included in an organization of Christian professional organizers called Faithful Organizers. I got to meet several of them in person at a National Organizers Conference I attended in 2009. A few years later I was asked to write some devotions for the group.

For me it became so much more than cleaning up someone's clutter. I saw a difference it was making in women's lives as they felt so much better about themselves once the clutter was gone. Physical clutter causes emotional clutter.

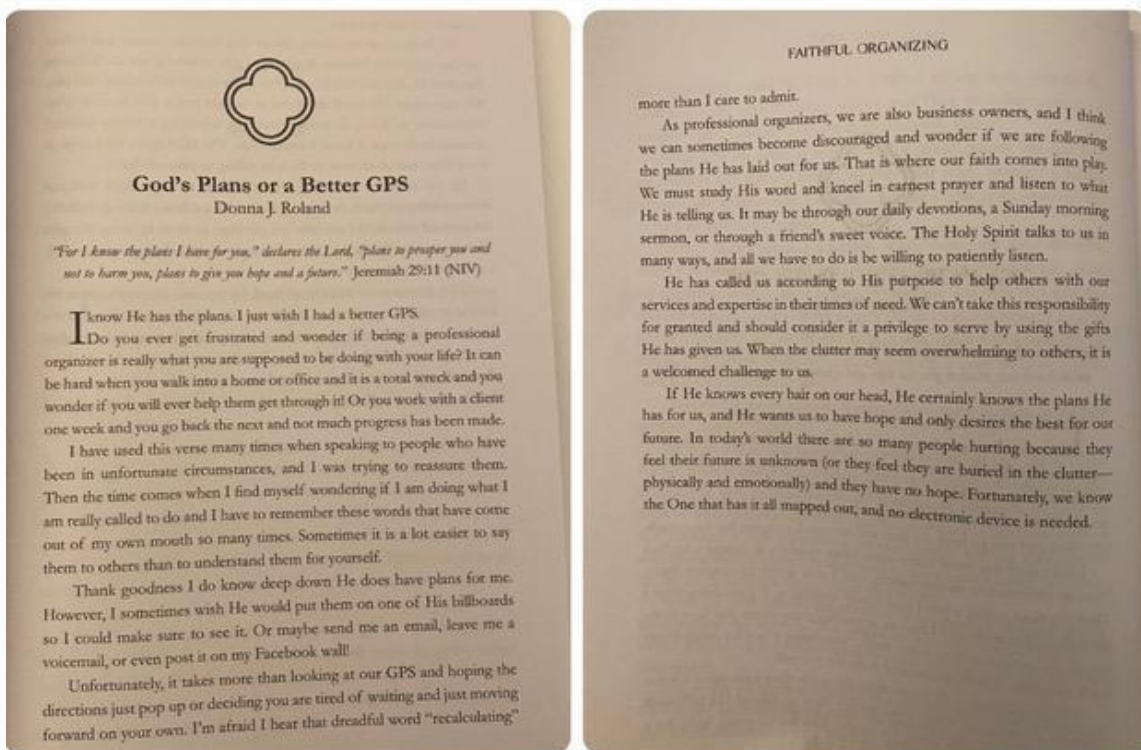

Fast forward to 2011 when I wanted to do more to help women feel better about themselves and feel confident in who God created them to be. After leaving my life in the corporate world, I took a huge leap of faith and became trained as an Image Consultant and certified as a Color & Style Specialist. I knew without a doubt this was a road God had asked me to travel and I wanted to be obedient to Him. I have been blessed to work with women discovering their best colors and styles and how to put complete outfits together to fit their personality, budget and lifestyle.

Little did I know God had even bigger plans for me as He has led me through this amazing journey over the years! He was with me through the struggle I never dreamed I'd face to equip me to tell my story to encourage other women through their stories. I have been honored to work with women one on one, in small groups, and speak on stages in amazing places as I help them learn to love the woman in their mirror!

A couple years ago I was approached by the Faithful Organizer group leaders for permission to use one of my devotions in a book they were putting together. On Sunday I received my copy of the published book!

While I was directing the devotion towards other organizers at the time, it is appropriate for anyone in business as you ask God to direct your path. Spoiler alert- He already has the plans mapped out and no GPS is needed! Here's that devotional... and if you'd like a copy of the book, here is a link - its only $10!

And... speaking of speaking...

I was honored to speak at a ladies' tea at Longs Chapel church a couple of months ago and was recently blessed with this testimonial! This is my passion! If your ladies' group is planning an event this fall/winter or any time next year, I would love to talk to you about being your guest speaker! I have available spots in October for Breast Cancer Awareness month as well.

CLIENT TESTIMONIAL

DONNA ROLAND
Speaker & Stylist

"When planning a recent ladies' tea at our church, we prayed for a speaker who would inspire, encourage and engage with our women, while also equipping us to live into God's promises. Going above and beyond that prayer, God led us to Donna Roland. Her story behind Get Up, Dress Up, Never Give Up, is inspirational, shining God's hope into our more difficult seasons of life. To top it off, now we know our colors and style a bit better, but going deeper than our outer beauty, we can stand taller in Godly confidence as we daily embrace the truth of being a reflection of God's perfection.
